VOL. CXV. No. 213. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1914. PRICE, 2 CENTS

WHITHER ARE WE DRIFTING?

A Brief Discussion of the Finances of Alexandria.

The City Council met on the 1st inst. organized, and to-morrow night will meet for the purpose of having announced the personnel of committee assignments for the next two years. The council at the very beginning face a practically empty treasury. This was inevitable by reason of the manner in which appropriations have been made in the past few years and which has necessitated temporary loan Each loan increased yearly until the last appropriation bill has an item calling for $51,700.00. A temporary loan should be paid, and not as has been the policy to really make them a permanent obligation.

On Tuesday morning just before Council met the City Auditor handed for perusal to Henry K. Field, who for many years has served as chairman of the finance committee, statement in detail of the receipts and expenditures of the general fund for the three months ending August 31st, 1914. We have been shown the figures and allowed to make notes from them. The total receipts in round or even figures amount to $120,000.00 made up as follows: taxes $100,115.00 licenses $16. 700. 00 police court fines $917.00 sewers $800.00 and many small receipts.

There was paid by warrants of the city during these three months $117.800. 00 leaving a balance of $2, 200.00

A reference to, and the appropriations—those made in the regular appropriation bill, and those made in special ordinance and resolution—may be pertinent just here, and it requires neither an expert accountant or financial tactician to explain them as they can be understood by a school boy who can read and understands the first three rules of arithmetic.

The appropriation bill passed in May-June last for fiscal year June 1, 1914. May 31st 1915 amounts to $197,000.00

Extra appropriations are
For press association $300.00
Sewers 5,000.00
Storage room Reliance
S. F. E. 700.00
Tool house jail 700.00
Horses Truck Co. . . 600.00
School lot 3,500.00
Alexandria Hospital 5,000.00
Lee St. paving . . . 10,000.00
Children play ground 100.00
Repairs to Reliance Steam Engine? 25,900.00

222,900.00

This $223,000.00 will not be the minimum amount of our expenditures when the books close on May 31, 1915 the end of our fiscal year. How were these expenditures to be provided for was a question in May last.

The finance committee could find no sources from which to raise any additional revenue. It is an open secret, and the sanctity of silence should not obscure our judgment in admitting that building operations in the corporate limits in 1913 were not of the flood tide order. Hence, receipts for year 1913-14 could be used as an estimate for 1914-15 and will probably be between $168,000.00 and $170, 000.00. The difference between $223,000.00 and $170, 000.00 is $53,000.00 so without adding one dollar more to our appropriations we will have to borrow $53,000. 00 and more.

Many of the Gazette's readers are familiar with the story of the man who was for nights annoyed by the room occupant above continually walking the floor, and upon making inquiry was told by the floor walker that he could not sleep as he had some notes to meet the next day and was without money to do so, and the advice given "To go to bed and sleep and let the man who held the notes walk the floor" To many of us a spirit similar to this was manifested by some who christened themselves progressives. Be this true or not, if we understand the instructions of the people as voiced in their ballots at the last two municipal elections, it is for a more conservative policy. The City Council should remember that in addition to the deficit of $53, 000.00 we are also expected to provide the money for the new high school and also for improvements to the armory which will require not less than $70,000.

These matters cannot be whistled down the wind for in the words of Grover Cleveland "It is a condition not a theory that confronts us."

The total deficits at the end of the present fiscal year will be approximately $123,000.

FIGHT BEFORE NANCY.

Vienna, (via Rome), Sept. 7.—The main Austrian amry of invasion, commanded by Generals Mortiz, Von Auffenberg and Darkl, is desperately engaged today with an overwheming Russian force between Hrubieszow, Russian Poland, and the Galician border. The Russians are endeavoring to overwhelm the Austrians before the main body of Germans re-enforcements, now being rushed from Grudenz and Thorn, can reach the scene.

The Russian troops are commanced by General Rouzsky, who recently forced the Austrians to evacuate Lemberg, and it is stated here that the Russians outnumber the Austrians four or five to one.

The Austrians have heavily intrenched, and are fighting on the defense, pending the arrival of re-enforcements from Germany. General Von Auffenberg, in his official report, admits that his armies are hard pressed, but expresses the belief that they will be able to withstand the initial attack and finally drive back the Russians.

FINED FIFTY DOLLARS.

Oicers Reid And Talbot Make Descent on Disorderly House on West Wolfe Street.

Considerable excitement was caused on Wolfe street near Patrick, at a late hour Saturday night by a fight which took place in a house conducted by Mary Davis, during which, it is alleged, William Oehlert struck a man named Gorham on the head with a beer bottle.

Officer Reed and Talbot made a descent upon the place and arrested the proprietress and her daughter, Florence Lewis, and a young girl named Eva Smith, of Washington. They also placed a man known as "Spot" Watson in custody, he, it was shown, having been in the house. They were brought before the Police Court this morning, when the Davis woman was fined $50 for keeping a disorderly house and her daughter and Watson $5 each.

Oehert and Gorham, who had been cited to appear, could not be found when the case was called and their case will come up later. The Smith girl was dismissed with the understanding that if she is found in Alexandria she will be sent to jail for ninety days under the vagrant act.

ENGLISH FLEET IN NORTH SEA

Prepares to Break German Naval Power—To Extinguish Lights

LOSS OF PATHFINDER.

Capture of Fishing Fleet Again Emphasizes Menace to English Shipping By German Vessels.

LEAD

London, Sept. 7.—England's fleet is preparing for an earnest attempt to break the German naval powder. At the admiralty it ns admitted important developments are expected. The North Sea has again been closed to all shipping. The navigation lights on the coast still burn, but a brusque announcemnt says they may be extinguished at any time.

The loss of the lighgt cruiser, Pathfinder, following the destuction of the Wilson liner Run, by mines, and the capture of a part of the North Sea fleet of fishing craft by German cruisers and destoyers, has again emphasized the menace from the German naval forces. Whether the British officials plan another cutting out sortie or whether they expect the Germans to feel out their strength is unknown, but there is no doubt that the admiralty looks for action.

The loss of the Pathfinder, while not material when the relative strength of the two services is considered, removes a first class light cruiser that has been serviceable. The Pathfinder was what is known as a patrol ship.

Cole bleed profusely and was conducted to Doctor Gorma for surgical assistance.

Officer Young today arrested both parties and they were brought before the Police Court. Bentley was fined $10 and Cole dismissed.

LABOR ENJOYS A DAY OF REST

Quiet Observance of Annual Holiday to Alexandria Toilers Today.

MANY AT THE DYKE.

Outing of Alexandria Trades Council Draws Big Crowd to Resort Four Miles South of City.

Labor Day was quietly observed in Alexandria today. Business was generally suspended for the entire day. The banks, manufacturing plants, wholesale houses and the principal stores closed for the entire day and the balance of the retail establishments closed at noon.

There was no public celebration of the day in the city, but the Alexandria Trades Council celebrated the event with a big all-day outing at the Dyke, four miles south of Alexandria.

Several thousand persons went to the resort during the day and a large crowd is expected tonight.

A long program of athletic events is scheduled for the day. Races for boys, men and women are on the program and a number of novelties will be introduced. Tonight a prize dance contest will be held.

GERMANS ANNIHILATED.

Three Hundred Left Out of Five Thousand at Luneville.

Paris Sept. 7—The annihilation of 5,000 Germans who captured Luneville and was in turn attacked by French troops was described yesterday by the German commander, who was captured and taken to Fort Richelieu.

"The French evacuated Luneville after a sharp resistance, and we entered in triumph, elated at the ease with which we had won our victory," said the officer. "We did not know that, while they were holding us back, the French had moved a mass of artillery to the heights overlooking the town, where it was planted behind screens of foliage. We had no sooner taken possession and hoisted the German flag than the bombardment opened."

"Soon a number of buildings were on fire and men were dropping in the streets on every side. The streets were filled with them. The wreckage of shattered houses hid many more. We tried to move forward to capture the French guns but were swept back by the fire. Within two hours only 300 Germans, out of our original 5,000, were left alive, and most of these bore wounds.

"I determined to surrender. Here I struck another difficulty. I couldn't find any white cloth for a flag of truce. Finally an idea struck me. An orderly of my staff had been wounded and was lying in the building in which I had taken shelter. I tore his shirt from his body, snatched up the musket of a dead soldier, and attached the shirt to the bayonet. The cloth was stained with blood and I feared the French wouldn't recognize it. Running to the roof I waved the flag and soon the artillery fire died down."

CORONATION OF THE POPE

Imposing Ceremonies In Sistine Chapel in Rome

Rome, Stp. 7—The coronation of Pope Benedict XV took place yesterday in the Sistine Chapel. The ceremony was imposing in its solemnity. The Sistine Chapel was used for the occasion in order to avoid pomp during the war. The entire pontifical court, numbers of the Roman aristocracy, and the pontiff were present.

The scene with Pope Benedict seated in the sdia gestatora preceded by the bearers of the triple crown and flanked by the bearers of the celebrated feather fans, and 60 cardinals in their full vestments was a striking one.

When the ceremony ended the Pope was received with loud acclaim by those present.

Later in the day Pope Benedict received successively in private audience Cardinals Gibbons, Farley, and O'Connell, who presented their suites and some American friends.

The entire armed corps of the holy see saluted the passage of the procession which formed in the Pope's apartments and then proceeded to the Pauline chapel, where the adoration of the holy sacrament was celebrated. In the procession were high dignitaries of the papal court, patriarchs, archbishops, and Oriental bishops.

From the Pauline chapel the procession moved to the Sistine chapel where a mass was said. After the indulgentiam the subdeacon placed the maniple on the arm of the Pope who sat down while the cardinals of the diocese of Rome recited the coronation prayer. The Pope then mounted the altar and a cardinal placed the pallium on his shoulders. At this moment Benedict XV received the last adoration of the cardinals, bishops and abbes. Then he read the introit, intoned the gloria, and resumed his seat on the throne.

GALSS FACTORIES NOT TO REOPEN

Two Out of Four Will Remain Idle on Account Prohibition Fight.

REASONS ARE GIVEN.

Old Dominion and Alexandria Glass Works Will Open Tomorrow With Reduced Forces.

Two out of the four glass factories of Alexandria, employing several hundred men, with a pay roll running over $6,000 a week, will not open tomorrow in accordance with usual practice. The unsettled conditions in Virginia due to the agitation for statewide prohibition is given as the reason for the continued shut down of the two big plants.

Alexandria has four glass factories which make up the greater part of its manufacturing industry. The two plants that will remain closed are the Virginia Glass Works in West End and the Belle Pre plant, now owned by the Old Dominion Glass Company. The other two factories, the Old Dominion and the Alexandria Glass Company will open tomorrow but with a much smaller force than usual.

During the summer months the work of rebuilding the furnaces and a general overhauling has been in progress at the last two companies but no work along these lines has been done at the first above.

Lorenzo Wolford, president of the Old Dominion Company, stated today that the Belle Pre factory would not open on account of the possibility of Virginia going dry at the election to be held on September 22nd. The greater part of the products of the Alexandria factories are glass whisky and beer bottles. Immense quantities of pint and quarts flasks are shipped to Norfolk, Richmond, Roanoke and Lynchburg. Beer bottles are manufactured for the local breweries. According to Mr. Wolford all the glass companies have large stocks of bottles on hand which can be used to fill orders from now until the saloons close if the voters decide that no more intoxicants shall be sold in the state.

The Old Dominion will open tomorrow, according to Mr. Wolford with about fifty per cent of its usual force. The opening of this plant is due to an accummulation of special orders which must be made at once.

The Alexandria Glass Company will also open tomorrow but with not as arge a force as usual. This plant makes a specialty of prescription bottles of a miscellaneous nature.

RUSSIANS IN FRANCE.

Czar Adds One Hundred Thousand Men to Allies.

New York, Sept. 7.—By August 22 the last Russian soldier had left England and was on his way to join the allied armies in France, said Mr. Vance Thompson, the author, who arrived yesterday on the Kronland.

Ten thousand of them went on the Red Star steamer Lapand from Dover to Calais, Others went by way of Southampton to Boulogne.

At the present time Russia has 150,000 men in France and England has 100,000. It will take England seven months to complete the formation of the army of 700, 000 men that she expects to form. I learned from a reliable source that 100,000 Indian troops including regiments of Sikhs and the Ninth Bengal Lancers were expected to land at Marseilles on September 1.

A French general told me that the French would regard the loss of Paris as a mere incident and that the transfer to Bordeaux of the seat of government had been arranged for long ago. France, he said, had formed no important method of attack, intending from the outset to use her troops for defensive purposes.

It is known generally in England that 350,000 more Russian soldiers will be brought from Alchangel to Aberdeen and New Castle-on-the-Tyne and that two months has been allowed for their transportation.

SOME OF THE HORRORS OF WAR. LL

People who have traveled through France on railroad trains have been struck by the beauty of the rural districts. They have on such occasions realized why the Frenchman believes his the prettiest country on earth, and why he desires to be buried in his own land. Rows of trees in as perfect a line as picket fences, divide farms and extend for miles, while every foot of the ground seems to under cultivation. Plots shaped as diamonds, triangles, hearts, circles, etc., are to be seen everywhere and these are filled with vegetation of divers colors, and in some places growing herbs are arranged in letters expressive of religious truths. It is not so now, however.

Like a lovely woman shorn of her tresses, Paris today stands alone, a city without suburbs. Gone are the little villages where lived some of the city's adjoining people. Gone are the houses and barns of the market gardeners. Gone too, are some of the handsome villas, the country homes of the well-to-do parisians.

The military wreckers have finished their work of razing all the environs of Paris and the capital has a distinctly "bob-tailed" look The suburbs have been demolished against the dreaded but deprecated contingency that the Germans might invest Paris. It was deemed necessary by the war officers, now in supreme control, that the country for many miles around Paris be cleared of houses, in order that the forts defending the capital might have uninterrupted range and also that the enemy might have no shelter to aid their advance.

OBSERVANCE OF LABOR DAY

The observance of Labor Day throughout the country has been steadily growing for years. It is anticipated weeks in advance, and the excursions and picnics indulged in on the occasion are among the most pleasant of the year. It falls upon the first Monday in September, generally when the backbone of summer is giving way to cooler conditions, and when the majority who have spent the heated term away from the city have returned to their homes. The workingman awaits with patience his opportunity to enjoy an outing not of weeks, but simply one day which he is thankful to call his own.

The Alexandria Trades Council will celebrate the occasion at the Dyke this year. This is a pleasant retreat close to the city, and those who will go with the laboring element today will have opportunities to take electric trains which will go down the road at short intervals and return at virtually all hours.

The day will be observed as a semi-holiday in Alexandria. In the afternoon most of the places of business will be closed in order to allow employees the opportunity of mingling with the many who will divert themselves in one way or another.

The great mass of humanity toil on through winter's snows as well as the dog days with virtually no time for recreation. Every day is strenuous and a day in the first fall month is a great desideratum. It is hoped all will enjoy today the outing to which they are justly entitled.

WAR AND COFFEE

All the Coffee consumed in America comes from foreign soil, and is transported to the United States in German and English vessels. In fact foreign counties supply the world with Coffee and their import trade at the present time is at a standstill on account of the great European war.

The Coffee held in warehouses in America is at the lowest ebb, and there seems but little chance in the near future to import Coffee in great quantities.

Up to the present time there has been no advance in the price of Coffee in our stores, altho practically throughout the country the prices of all foreign product have increased tremendously.

Our price on Coffee will remain unchanged until our supply is exhausted.

BUSINESS SECURITY.

Stagnation In All Countries, Not Ensuring This Security.

One of the most important questions of the day relates to the extent to which a government should interfere in the affairs of business. The successful man has always had to run the risk of attack. Safety from unreasonable interference by government or attack by others leads the ambitious man on to his greatest exertions. In some countries, as in parts of Asia, government rapacity has made it dangerous for a man to acquire anything beyond his bare necessities. In such a society, nothing but poverty and business stagnation can exist. Governmental intervention in the affairs of business should extend only over such things as are necessary for fair publicity and truthful statements. Under such a government, business security is at its best. Individuality and initiative are encouraged; the country is progressive, and its future prosperity is well guarded. But as soon as legislation begins to deprive the producer of a square deal, or where business is "regulated" by people without the experience and necessary training, business security will be transformed into business depression. A government should be limited to its natural functions of just and reasonable legislation for the greatest good of the greatest number of people, and should never show favors in order to "catch votes" or to secure campaign contributions.

In addition to Certain-teed Roofing, we also manufacture a complete line of lower priced roofings, building papers, shingles, sheathing, carpet linings, etc., put up in standard-sized rolls, packages and weights. They are accepted as standard by leading architects and engineers. Your local dealer will be pleased to give you full information about our goods and will quote you reasonable prices. DEATH OF JUDGE LETCHER

Son of Virginia's War Governor Succumbs to Paralysis.

Lexington, Va., Sept. 7.—S. Houston Letcher, aged sixty years, died Saturday morning at his home in Lexington from effects of paralysis. He was a son of Governor John Letcher, Virginia's war governor.

Judge Letcher was born in Lexington in 1848. He entered the Confederate army before he was sixteen, with the V. M. I. cadets at Newmarket, and later served in trenches around Richmond.

More Refugees Landed.

New York, Sept. 7—Bringing only 387 passengers, all Americans of whom 270 were in the first class and 117 in the second, the Red Star liner Kroonland arrived here yesterday afternoon.

Vance Thompson, the magazine writer, who came out of Mulhausen Alsace, on August 2 by the last train, had vivid tales, most of which were frm his own personal observation on the border.

At Stuttgart a German officer in uniform asked two English women for their passports. The women, one about 30, the other 25, refined and well dressed, mistook the officer for a railway employe, and treated him haughtily.

"Since you talk that way to me," said the army officer, according to Mr. Thompson, "I will show you what the power of Germany is:"

The officer ordered the women stripped in the baggage room of the station in the presence of soldiers. Moreover, he gave orders that the women should be stripped in like manner at every station between Stuttgart and Basel, on the Swiss border.

ANTHRACITE COAL

We strongly urge our customers to take in their winter's supply of fuel early.

Coal mined in the summer and early fall months is generally more carefully prepared and the supply is more certain at this time than it might be later this year.
